Section A: Directed Writing

Read Text A and Text B in the insert and then answer Section A, Question 1(a) and 1(b).

Question 1(a)

Reread this extract from Text B:

> Our school music programme will start that journey. Our children will learn the fundamentals of classical music, its history and its practice, through a series of inspiring talks from the celebrated orchestral conductor (and former student of our school) Simon Chi. They will be exposed to, and learn to love, our rich musical heritage through their weekly public performances of opera and music from ballet, demonstrating their newly acquired skills to a wider audience. They may even take part in tours further afield to publicise our wonderful school. This experience will remain a part of the fabric of their lives and colour their experience of music for ever after.

Use your own words to evaluate the headteacher's attitude to the school's new music programme. Give details from the text to justify your answer.

Question 1(b)

Write a magazine article for young people with the title, ‘Music matters’.

In your article you should:

- evaluate the views, attitudes and opinions given in both texts
- give your own views, based on what you have read, about the best ways to inspire young people to become involved with music.

Base your article on what you have read in both texts, but be careful to use your own words. Address both of the bullet points.

Write about 250 to 350 words.

Up to 10 marks are available for reading and up to 25 marks for writing.
