Section A: Directed Writing

Read Text A and Text B in the insert and then answer Section A, Question 1(a) and 1(b).

Question 1(a)

Reread this extract from Text B:

> Today, tucking my bank card firmly away, I decide to see how far real cash will get me. Not far. Any high-priced items it seems are strictly cashless affairs: my rent and telephone bill among them. I meet with baffled expressions and some resistance from the assistant at the agency I rent my apartment from. 'I can't remember the last time we received a cash payment,' she says. 'We don't like keeping cash in the office, we don't have a safe, and banks charge you for depositing cash.' I see her point. Later, as my daughter cracks open her money box and counts out her small stash of coins, I realise that the cost of depositing her savings into her bank account this month will wipe them out.

Use your own words to evaluate the writer's attitude to paying with cash. Give details from the text to justify your answer.

Question 1(b)

There is a proposal for your local area to become cash-free. You want to share your views on this proposal at a meeting of local residents.

Write a speech giving your views on whether or not the proposal should go ahead.

In your speech you should:

- evaluate the ideas, attitudes and opinions given in both texts
- consider some of the ways that being cash-free might affect individuals, businesses and the wider community.

Base your speech on what you have read in both texts, but be careful to use your own words. Address both of the bullet points.

Write about 250 to 350 words.

Up to 10 marks are available for reading and up to 25 marks for writing.
