Read Text B, Volunteering with elephants, in the insert and then answer Question 2(a) and 2(b).

Question 2

(a) What makes volunteer tourism in an elephant park worthwhile for the animals and for the human volunteers, according to Text B?

You must use continuous writing (not note form) and use your own words as far as possible.

Your summary should not be more than 120 words.

Up to 10 marks are available for reading and up to 5 marks for writing.

Read Text C, River Game Reserve, in the insert and then answer Question 3(a)–(d).

Question 3

(a) Identify a word or phrase from the text which suggests the same idea as the words in bold:

(i) Different terrains and landscapes were spread far and wide over River Game Reserve.

..... [1]

(ii) The rain on the night that the elephants arrived was extremely heavy.

..... [1]

(b) Using your own words, explain what the writer means by each of the words in bold:

Just as the trucks pulled into the game reserve, a tyre exploded, and the vehicle tilted dangerously in the mud. My heart froze at the elephants' terrified trumpeting and screeching. It wasn't until dawn that we managed to get them into the secure enclosure.

(i) exploded ..... [1]

(ii) froze ..... [1]

(iii) screeching ..... [1]

(c) Use one example from the text below to explain how the writer uses language to suggest Lawrence's feelings about the situation with the elephants.

Use your own words in your explanation.

Night after night, Lawrence stayed as close to the secure enclosure as he dared, singing to those angry elephants, talking to them and telling them stories until he was hoarse. With tender determination and no shortage of foolhardiness, Lawrence breached Celia's terror of humans and gained her trust.

(d) Choose three powerful words or phrases from the extract below to analyse how the writer uses language to describe Celia and her herd visiting the narrator's home.

Whenever Celia, the lead elephant, and her herd visit, their trunks immediately curl up like periscopes to scan our house. They start to wonder: 'Are they at home? Is that appetising whiff coming from their bountiful fruit trees? Would a daring fruit-raid be within the realms of possibility?' Our cat finds his blissful slumbers on the patio rudely disturbed, then the exuberant elephant babies gleefully charge after him along the length of the wire fence that borders our garden, their bodies a gangling bundle of floppy ears and tiny swinging trunks.

Write about 200 to 250 words.

Up to 10 marks are available for the content of your answer.

Re-read Text C, River Game Reserve, in the insert and then answer Question 4.

Question 4

You are Lawrence. You are interviewed about the elephants in River Game Reserve for a magazine article about animal conservation.

The interviewer asks you the following three questions only.

- How did you come to be responsible for the elephants and what were your concerns before they arrived?
- What challenges did you face when the elephants came into your care and how did you deal with them?
- How are the elephants settling now and what advice would you give other game reserve owners about elephants?

Write the words of the interview.

Base your interview on what you have read in Text C, but be careful to use your own words. Address each of the three bullets.

Begin your interview with the first question.

Write about 250 to 300 words.

Up to 10 marks are available for reading and up to 10 marks for writing.
