Read Text A, Treasure hunting, in the insert and then answer Question 1(a)–(f).

Question 1

(a) What two things give people the idea to search for treasure, according to paragraph 1?

- .....
- ..... [1]

(b) Using your own words, explain what the text means by:

(i) '… to recover later.' (lines 6–7)

.....

..... [2]

(ii) '… concealed around the globe.' (line 7).

.....

..... [2]

(c) Reread paragraph 2 ('It makes sense … from a robbery.').

Using your own words, explain why the writer believes it is reasonable to think that treasure really was buried in the past.

.....

.....

..... [3]

(d) Reread paragraph 3 ('So, how … of the treasure.').

(i) Give two different ways treasure hunters should get the information they need to start their search.

- .....
- ..... [2]

(ii) Explain the effect of the word 'naive' (line 13).

.....

.....

..... [2]

(e) Reread paragraphs 4 and 5 (‘Treasure hunters … work again.’”).

(i) Identify two reasons why people who have been inspired to hunt for treasure might not set out straight away.

- .....
- ..... [2]

(ii) Explain why some people might not be persuaded to take up treasure hunting by Alex Rohn’s claims.

.....

..... [3]

(f) Reread paragraph 6 (‘If your heart’s … equipment.’).

Using your own words, explain why now may not be a good time to take up the hobby of treasure hunting.

Read Text B, Metal detecting, in the insert and then answer Question 2(a) and 2(b).

Question 2

(a) According to Text B, what concerns, worries and objections might there be about the hobby of metal detecting?

You must use continuous writing (not note form) and use your own words as far as possible.

Your summary should not be more than 120 words.

Up to 10 marks are available for reading and up to 5 marks for writing.

Read Text C, The beach, in the insert and then answer Question 3(a)–(d).

Question 3

(a) Identify a word or phrase from the text which suggests the same idea as the words in bold:

(i) The boys and their mother have to pass through and around the delicate hills of sand to get access to the beach.

..... [1]

(ii) The goods carried by the ship that sank were never found, but the people on board were saved.

..... [1]

(b) Using your own words, explain what the writer means by each of the words in bold:

On this dazzling afternoon, cycling along the sea's edge is exhilarating and our laughter sends seagulls scattering skywards. The new path we're following ends abruptly and we're stranded on the wrong side of a channel of water.

(i) dazzling ..... [1]

(ii) exhilarating ..... [1]

(iii) abruptly ..... [1]

(c) Use one example from the text below to explain how the writer suggests her feelings as she attempts to cross the channel of water on her bicycle.

Use your own words in your explanation.

I show the boys that, like life, if you approach it full on, you can most times power through on sheer determination. But today the channel's deeper than it looks. I've misjudged it massively. My bike comes to a graceless halt midway, balances briefly, then falls flat on its side, depositing me spectacularly in fifty centimetres of water.

(d) Choose three powerful words or phrases from the extract below to analyse how the writer uses language to describe the shipwreck.

'From this distance it looks unreal, like some elaborate prop on a sweeping stage of sand. The children race towards its magic. Getting closer, I experience the same thrill. I know that these sands shift, playing an endless game of hide-and-seek. Even so, it's hard to believe this has been here, buried and invisible: a wooden vessel, rotting and exposed, its curved wooden spurs like the ribcage of some enormous extinct beast, picked clean of its flesh by the sea. The boys clamber on board like marauding cartoon pirates. This wreck is an astonishing sight.'

Write about 200 to 250 words.

Up to 10 marks are available for the content of your answer.

Reread Text C, The beach, in the insert and then answer Question 4.

Question 4

You are Charlie. Years later you work for an organisation which protects natural environments. As part of your work, you give a speech to persuade young people to protect your local area.

In your speech you:

- describe how you spent your afternoons on the beach as a young boy and what you enjoyed best about those activities looking back
- explain what you learned from your mother about the beach, its history and its people
- suggest how and why you were inspired to protect natural environments and what you think young people can do to help this beach.

Write the words of the speech.

Base your speech on what you have read in Text C, but be careful to use your own words. Address each of the three bullets.

Write about 250 to 300 words.

Up to 10 marks are available for reading and up to 10 marks for writing.
