Section A: Directed Writing

Read Text A and Text B in the insert and then answer Section A, Question 1(a) and 1(b).

Question 1(a)

Reread this extract from Text A:

> ‘And while we’ll try to offer some choice in the settings where students can volunteer, they won’t be able to avoid it. They can’t choose not to do maths and as another, equally important part of the school curriculum, they won’t be able to opt out of volunteering.’

Use your own words to evaluate the headteacher’s attitude to making volunteering compulsory. Give details from the text to justify your answer.

Question 1(b)

Write an article for your school or college magazine about whether or not a volunteer scheme for older students would be a good idea.

In your article you should:

- evaluate the ideas, attitudes and opinions about volunteering in both texts
- consider the effects a compulsory volunteering scheme in school would have on students, teachers and the wider community.

Base your article on what you have read in both texts, but be careful to use your own words. Address both of the bullet points.

Write about 250 to 350 words.

Up to 10 marks are available for reading and up to 25 marks for writing.
