Section A: Directed Writing

Read Text A and Text B in the insert and then answer Section A, Question 1(a) and 1(b).

Question 1(a)

Reread this extract from Text A:

> ‘There is something smug about the cult of book ownership. I don’t mean reading – if you have a local library where you can borrow books for free, that is a pastime that is accessible to almost everyone. No, I mean owning books, treating having a lot of books as a statement about you, or believing that simply owning a lot of books, read or not, makes you “know things”.’

Use your own words to evaluate the writer’s attitude to people who own large numbers of books. Give details from the text to justify your answer.

Question 1(b)

Write a speech to an audience of young people about attitudes to owning books and keeping them.

In your speech you should:

- evaluate the ideas, attitudes and opinions in the texts about buying and keeping books
- give your own views, based on the texts, on some of the factors which should influence young people's attitudes to buying and keeping books.

Base your speech on what you have read in both texts, but be careful to use your own words. Address both of the bullet points.

Write about 250 to 350 words.

Up to 10 marks are available for reading and up to 25 marks for writing.
